

UFCW Local 655 Salutes... State Rep. Patricia Yaeger

The United Food and Commercial Workers Local 655 is proud of all its members, but a special tip of the hat goes to State Representative Patricia (Pat) Yaeger, a former 26-year member and former Schnuck Markets employee.

Pat represents the citizens of the 96th District, an area primarily located in Lemay and part of Affton in South St. Louis County. Pat has been a strong advocate for Missouri workers while serving in Jefferson City.

We encourage you to come meet and support Rep. Yaeger at a rally on Thursday, Oct. 19, 2006 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at White Rodgers Community Center, 9801 Mackenzie Rd., Affton, MO 63123.

Local 655 members are also asked to help Pat go door-to-door for her campaign re-election. We will meet at the Affton Schnucks parking lot at 4 p.m. on Nov. 1 and 2. Please come out and help.

If you have any questions, please call Dave Politte at 636-736-2776 or email dpolitte@ufcw655.org.

McCaskill to debate live on Sunday's "Meet the Press"

U.S. Senate candidate Claire McCaskill and U.S. Senator Jim Talent will debate at 9 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 8 on NBC's "Meet the Press." The debate will be repeated at 5 p.m. on CNBC and at 9 p.m. on MSNBC.

"It's been said that 'as Missouri goes, so goes the nation'. The fact that Missouri would be one of the few states to have its U.S. Senate campaign represented on a program as respected as 'Meet the Press' highlights our state's history as a bellwether in the political process. It would provide an excellent opportunity to show how the issues being debated in Missouri are reflective of the ongoing national discussion," McCaskill Campaign Manager Richard Martin said.

"Meet the Press" has a website for interested voters to submit questions for the candidates. If you'd like to submit a question, visit: www.msnbc.msn.com/id/6913788/

Shop 'n Save O'Fallon North wins with Wal-Mart picket

The Wal-Mart picket line contest held at St. Charles Rock Road and Cypress Blvd. was another great success.

A total of seven stores participated, with the winner being Shop 'n Save O'Fallon North.

We would like to thank everyone who participated in the picketing. Helping on the picket line brings public awareness of the burden the Wal-Mart Company is placing on the economy and the taxpayers of this country.

Watch your back page in the St. Louis Labor Tribune or visit wakeupalalmart.com for future Wal-Mart-related activities.
